THE GRACE CALLED HONOUR!

VERON • EXCERPT | 15 OCTOBER 2026 • 10:00 PM

How do you honour those who have gone ahead of you? How do you treat the people whose sacrifices, wisdom, prayers, and labour have contributed to your becoming?

In a generation that is quick to desire greatness but sometimes slow to recognize those who came before them, God is calling us back to the culture of honour.

You can be gifted and still need guidance. You can be anointed and still need instruction. You can be rising and still owe gratitude to those who helped you along the way.

“Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour…” — 1 Timothy 5:17

Tonight, we are learning how to honour men, spiritual leaders, mentors, and those who have gone ahead of us without compromising our convictions or idolizing people.

You cannot walk in the grace of honour while cultivating a culture of dishonour.

WITH GRATITUDE. WITHOUT IDOLATRY.

“

You cannot walk in the grace of honour while cultivating a culture of dishonour.

You can be gifted and still need guidance. Anointed and still need instruction. Rising and still owe gratitude.
